Comments: Two weeks ago, I spent 3 days in cemeteries and libraries in FultonCo., and Morenci, Mi. looking for names that I have remembered since my childhood and from my grandmother's photo album, Old homes in the area that belonged to relatives we visited when I was young, and even a touch of family, although distant, (the last I was unable to find.) My Great,Great,Grandfather was John S. Butler "Uncle John" to most everyone in the early beginnings of Chesterfield Twp. Also, Ruth (Taylor) Marks, my Great Aunt, was very active in tracing and re-telling history. My mother, Audrey Hill, died almost 22 years ago, before I became so interested in my family's history. Any information would be greatly appreciated, I have quite a bit of empty spaces and am trying to piece the family names together, but I am unable to see the whole picture.

Cindy Harris was very helpful in finding the birth records of there children; Friend V., Clarence Eugene, Willard Lloyd, and Ethel Maud. She could not find any marriage or death records for Henry and Alice (family called her Marilla). They came to Ohio as indentured servants to work on farms. Since this county is close to the Michigan state line perhaps I should look there. Do you have any suggestions. Willard Lloyd died in Jan. 1985.

Comments: In searching for my father's roots, I found a few names in your county. My father was Samuel Dale Brailey (Texas), his father was Elgin Dale, born to Johnson Brailey, whose father was John Braley listed as born in 1831 in Henry County, Ohio. His father was Finius Braley born in 1807 in New Hampshire. I am fairly new at this although tracing my mother's roots was easy.

My father was badly wounded in WWII and I did not get to know he or his family. I was able to get my grandfather's name through Social Security but I have had little luck in connecting the dots. If you could be of any assistance, I would greatly appreciate it.

Where are you from?: Milwaukee, WI

Comments: My mother's family is originally from Gorham Township and I'm trying to find some more information on them. The names I am interested in are, Rice, Buckingham, Crouse, Schantz, Bailey, among others. They seem to very elusive. I'm going to keep checking back, though, because I'm sure they will show up, even if it's via another family. This is really a nice place to visit. It gives me some idea of where they lived and the lifestyle that goes with it.
Thank You. Linda

Surnames: CLARK, ANNABLE, BARBER

Query: I am looking for information on the family of Moses P CLARK and wife Lydia ANNABLE who lived in Fulton County Ohio from about 1846 until 1908.

Both Lydia, daughter of John and Rachel Barber ANNABLE and Moses Clark were born and raised in Fulton County.(around the Chesterfield area). Lydia is reportedly buried at the Hawley Cemetary in Chesterfield. Does anyone have access to the cemetary records there?

They reportedly had 5 children:Edwin a b.27 Mar 1876, Ralph R b. 17 April 1873; James Arthur b. 22 June 1878; Marion b. 21 July 1880; and Nellie C b. 17 Sept 1873 (source: LDS Church, Salt Lake City, UTAH ancestral file).

Would appreciate any information concerning this family.

Thank you

Rose Higgins
