Aug. 18, 1872 V.3. p 378 Divises to his wife RUTH during her lifetime all his property, both real and personal and at her death to be divided as follows: to Levi W. Brown to have all the property upon condition he has to pay to Lymen Brown or his heirs $1000.00 and to Truman H. Brown or his heirs $1000.00 and the children of Jane (Brown) Borton $50.00 (Jane being deceased). He mentions a suitable stone placed on the graves of himself, his wife, and the graves of his father and his mother. Wit by John W. Roseborough and Libbie Moyer. Codicil to my son Charles Owen Brown and my grand-daughter Florence Brown ... signed May 10, 1872 Wit by John Oberly and Libbie Moyer

09/2000 Revisiting will info above .. who is Charles Owen Brown and grand-daughter Florence Brown? noted on tree in reference as of this particular document and assume Florence to be this Charles Owen Brown's daughter ... no idea of mother ... and nada else either!

09/2000 Last not but least another strange puzzle is LYMEN Brown or his heirs ... clueless who Lymen must be ... I know who Truman H. is and Levi W. and Jane Brown-Borton yet this will now that I'm revisiting it is haunting me with the extra names I haven't got anything about ... possibly Seymour L. Brown's middle name which isn't unheard of ... will plug in there for now thinking it connects and might search further to see if it also could be the maiden name for Sallie Lnu ... interesting concept yet need to prove

Notes for Daniel Jr. Brown:

The County of Williams by Shinn, William Henry 1905, p. 306-307 Bio on Granville G. Brown s/o Daniel BROWN: "Daniel Brown . . . established himself in the general merchandise business at Burlington, Fulton Co., O where he remained until 1856, when he came to Williams county, becoming one of the substantial farmers of Madison Twp. Here he continued to reside until 1884 when he went to Kansas where he passed the remainder of his life dying in 1888 at a venerable age. He was originally a Whig and later a Republican in politics and for a time he served as postmaster at Deer Lick, this county. His first wife died in Fulton county, O in 1847 and his second wife, whose maiden name was Taylor, died about 1878, after which he married Sarah Horton who is now deceased ..." . . . One thing I did find was a bio [see hardcopy file for sketch] on George W. Elliott. "He married Allie J. Brown, who was born in Fulton County , Oh Nov. 5, 1863 ... was a daughter of Seymour & Eleanor (Smith) Brown". I did find death record for Eleanor Brown who died at age 76 on Dec. 23, 1910. (death record book H-17 page 62) Seymour, Eleanore, Wesley, etc are buried together in Cook Cemetery.

Notes for Truman H. Brown:

Truman A. H. or D. (depends on how you read the census handwriting) disappeared c 1860 after census where he's listed w/spouse Susan and son Aaron A. I've noted as H since will of Benjamin Brown dated April 28, 1871 " ... bequested to my son Truman H. Brown the sum of one thousand dollars..."

Hdst at Johnson Cemetery w/BROWN's has one hdst unaccounted for & I'll use it here since dates & names seem to coincide with Truman and his son Aaron: Hanson A. Brown s/o E H & S Brown 8 Sept 1861 ae 4y-4m-11d - This could very well be our Aaron A. since he was born in 1857 thus making DOB April 27, 1857 approx. and census taker might have phonetically spelled AARON instead of HANSON - initials of E H could also be an error and it should have been T H for Truman H. Brown - which might indicate his middle name was Hanson - just never know! - and possibly the surname that is missing for Susan could be Hanson as well ...

Biographical Sketch, Fulton Co. [Ohio] 1890, p. 105 reads as follows in the section Politics & Official Honors: Levi Walter Brown was born in Franklin twp., Fulton Co., December 21, 1841. He was reared on his father's farm where he worked during the spring & summer & attended school in the winter until he became 18 years of age. He then commenced teaching in season and was thus engaged alternating between the farm and schoolroom for a period of about four years. At the age of 25, having accumulated a small sum of money, the result of his industry, he embarked in the mercantile business at Elmira, Fulton Co, having a small stock at the outset but gradually enlarging it as his means permitted and the increasing trade required until he became known as one of the most successful and reliable country merchants of the country. . . about 1872 he sold out and moved to the farm of his parents they then being in impaired health and strength on account of their advanced years. . . February 1879 he removed to Wauseon to assume the office of probate judge. . . February 1879 was twice re-elected. . . 1886 he was a candidate for the nomination for the office of representative in Congress but was defeated in the nominating convention . . . in 1887 Judge Brown was made chairman of the Republican State Central Committee . . . Pres. Harrison who appointed Judge Brown to the position of Consul to Glasgow, Scotland . . . continued to reside in Wauseon until 1904 when ill health compelled a change of climate and he removed to North Carolina . . .

NOTE: L. W. Brown died in North Carolina yet his body was returned to Wauseon, Fulton Co., OH for burial at Wauseon Union Cemetery beside his 3rd wife Esther Converse Stone Brown - per Vashti Seaman's papers forwarded by Mark Lozer of Wauseon April 1999.

Judge L. W. Brown Dead - Prominent Western Citizen Passed Away at His Home in this City Yesterday.

Friends of the grief stricken family in this city deeply sympathize with the bereaved while hundreds of friends throughout the western states will be saddened and feel a personal loss in the death of Ex-Judge L. W. Brown which occurred at his residence 118 Tate Street in the city at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness he being invalid for four years. While his death was not unexpected it comes as a great shock to many relatives and friends. Judge Brown's condition began to grow worse Sunday night and never changed for the better. All that skilled physicians and loving and tender hands could do as done to restore him to health again but to no avail.

Judge Brown and family moved to this city just one month ago yesterday from Winston-Salem where they had made their resident for two years having moved there from Toledo, Ohio. They moved south in the interest of Judge Brown's health. While they have been residents of Greensboro only a short time they have made many friends who deeply sympathize with them in the death of husband and father.

Judge Brown played a very important part in politics in the western states and was held in the highest esteem for his personal and political integrity and statesmanship.

He was the American consul to Glasgow, Scotland under President Harrison and his record there was a splendid one. He was for a number of years Probate Judge in his home state. He was permanent chairman of the Kansas City convention which nominated Bryan for president in 1900.

He is survived by a wife, five sons and two daughters. The sons are: Messrs. Chas. M. of Cleveland, Ohio; Geo. C. of Wauseon, Ohio; Maynard D. of Clyde, Ohio; Albert M. of St. Louis, Mo.; Walter C. of this city. The daughters Misses Wilma and Ruth of this city. Mr. Maynard Brown arrived last night to attend the funeral. The other sons will not come as they cannot arrive in time for the funeral services. The funeral services will be conducted from the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. Dr. G. H. Detwiler, pastor of West Market Street Methodist church. The remains will be interred in the Green Hill cemetery by the Blue Lodge of Masons, the Knights Templar acting as escort. Judge Brown was a member of the Knights Templar for thirty years.

Only wishing I could have know my great-grandfather and knowing I couldn't have gotten this far without him! Submitted with much love and appreciation for family roots established by my ancestors: Maggie Brown Moerdyke

Notes for Ruth Armstrong Brown:

Ruth Armstrong Brown taught for many years as an elementary teacher, first grade, for Wauseon Public Schools until her retirement in 1941 when she married Reas Campbell.

Book of Golden Deeds Award issued to Ruth B. Campbell, June 11, 1964 - article reads as follows: Recently a friend said, "Anything that will better the community, Ruth Campbell is interested and usually involved in it." Although this statement was made on June 2, 1964, the same might well have been said for the over-half-century that Ruth has lived in Wauseon, where she was and still is thought of as one of the best teachers that ever served here. Ruth was born January 1, 1890 to Judge and Mrs. Levi Brown in Glasgow, Scotland. At the age of 3 1/2 the family moved to Northwest Ohio where she lived on the farm now owned by Jay Batdorf. She first attended school in a little white building which was later made into a parking lot at Clinton and E. Elm streets. First and second grades were completed in one year, in Old Normal School where Elm Street School now stands. After ninth grade, the Browns moved to North Carolina where Ruth attended 10th and 11th grades. After her father died in 1907, she came back to live with her brother, Maynard Brown, in Clyde and graduate from high school there in 1907. Ruth's education continued in Dr. Mary Law's Kindergarten Training School in Toledo for two years. Upon graduation, she taught in kindergarten in Toledo for four years. In 1914, she moved to Wauseon to teach in first grade where she served faithfully for 29 years. One Wauseonian has said recently that she is "one of the city's most revered teachers. Mothers used to insist that their child be taught by 'Miss Brown'". Until 1942, Ruth lived on East Oak Street. In that year she married Reas Campbell . . .

19. Granville Grafton⁶ Brown (Daniel Jr.⁵, Daniel⁴, Daniel³, Daniel², Levi¹) was born September 18, 1844 in NY - 1845 per 1850 census/Fulton Co., OH & biography²⁵, and died October 14, 1907 in Madison Twp., Williams Co., OH. He married Elizabeth S. Wallace February 15, 1866 in Madison Township, Williams Co., OH. She was born May 03, 1847 in Richland County, OH²⁶, and died January 30, 1933 in Madison Twp., Williams Co., OH.

Notes for Granville Grafton Brown:

Biography p. 306-307, The County of Williams by Shinn, William Henry 1905: "Mr. Brown was born in Fulton county, O, September 18, 1844, and is a son of Daniel and Emily (Atwood) Brown, the former of whom was born in Vermont of Colonial ancestry while the latter was born in Maryland."

Ruth Armstrong Brown-Campbell family notes: Granville and his wife Susan lived on a farm near Pioneer (Williams Co., OH). They had 8 boys and 1 girl. Some of the names were: Andrew Jackson, Charles, George, Maynard, Herman, Leonard, Levi, May. One I cannot remember. We had a picture of this big family when I was a little girl. George lived in Bryan (Williams Co., OH) and was a prominent citizen. A son Grant lives in Bryan and there is a married daughter. There are probably descendants of Granville and Susan living in Pioneer, Montpelier and Alvorton. NOTE: Names were from Aunt Ruth's memory and written notes, after receiving info from G. Grant Brown, Bryan, OH on 3/24/99, changes were made on the tree to agree with specific information he provided - see hard file!!

The County of Williams by William Henry Shinn (1905) From article above here are a few clips to be noted for genealogy purposes:

Politics: Originally a Whig and later Republican, Madison Twp trustee and assessor, schoolboard member 20 yrs., road supervisor, office of jury commissioner, board of directors Williams Co.

Agricultural Society and served as vice-president; and postmaster Deer Lick, Williams Co., OH

Education: Early educ schools of Burlington Fulton Co. & Madison Twp Williams Co., OH

Worked: father's farm until age 18

Civil War: Employed by government as a carpenter until end of war

Farm: 1865 purchased farm and added to until 160 acres

Faith: Church of God, superintendent Sunday School for 15 years

1850 Census for German Twp., Fulton Co., OH (October 4, 1850) gives age as 5 years born in NY - noted on tree as of this finding.

Aunt Ruth's family tree listed his wife as Susan - changed on tree to Elizabeth Wallace w/documentation provided from The County of Williams by William Henry Shinn (1905) Bio Sketch G. Grant Brown Williams Co., OH: At time of death, he was director & VP of Williams Co. Agricultural Assoc, president of Pioneer Creamery Co., Superintendent of Madison Bethel Sunday School, & member of board of education ... also, Elizabeth Wallace was the name in his obituary.

More About Charles Malvern Sr. Brown:

Burial: Wauseon Union Cemetery, Wauseon, Fulton Co., OH

Fact 1: 1924, Cause of Death: Arerio-schliosis

Notes for Maud(e) Louise Sullivan:

Per marriage license, Charles M. was age 35 & Maude was listed as age 32 both had residence address as Cleveland State Hospital documented on the license copy received from Cuyhoga Archives. Place of birth on marriage license is given as Alleghany, PA yet death certificate from funeral home gives Ireland as her place of birth. Much confusion as well on date of birth w/age on death certificate once at 63 & then 80 plus age on marriage license does not calculate correctly either.

Handwritten family tree date is given as 1879; computed from marriage license is 1871; figured from death certificate age 63 it is 1876; & then from new entry on death certificate of age 80 it's 1869. Posted 1869 date for logistical purposes and coincides closest to Charles' birthdate.

Death Certificate - see hardcopy file - dates incarcerated at Cleveland State Hospital were May 3, 1922- June 4, 1949 (27 years) ... and her brother Daniel F. Sullivan signed the death certificate; birthplace is noted as Ireland on death cert.

Per Cuyohoga County, OH request - copy of Cleveland Press June 6, 1949 obituary gives info and date of death as June 4, 1949. Reads: BROWN, Maude L. widow of Charles M. mother of Malvern Brown, sister of Mrs. Jenny (Charles M.) Holt of Massillon, Ohio (Stark Co.), deceased, Michael J. and Daniel F. Sullivan and Mrs. Joseph Igo of New York City. After 1:30 p.m. Sunday, friends may call at the Wm. J. Donlon Funeral Home, 9213 Miles Avenue. Funeral Tuesday, June 7 at 10:30a.m. at Holy Name Church. Please omit flowers.

Contacted funeral home personally: Donlon Funeral Home (Sally), 15408 Triskett Road, Cleveland, OH 216.251.7300 & following info was retrieved in reference to Maud Sullivan: Father's name and Mother's Name Unknown; brother Daniel F. Sullivan made funeral arrangements; born in Ireland; age at death was recorded first as 63 then crossed out & changed to 80; admitted to Cleveland State Hospital as a patient May 3, 1922 & resided there until her death June 4, 1949 (27 years); she was admitted w/paranoid condition & her death was listed as mardiocardia (heart attack?); she rests in an older Catholic cemetery in Cleveland-Calvary Cemetery.

01/1999 - located birth certificate & baptism from Holy Name Church, Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., OH (Charles M. Brown, Jr./Roman Catholic Church)- lists Daniel Sullivan & Mary Sullivan as witnesses at baptism - they were Maud(e)'s brother & his wife.

09/2000 Called Calvary Cemetery, Cleveland, OH 216-641-7575; SULLIVAN family buried in same plot Sect. 11, lot # 509, older section of cemetery:

John Sullivan burial date April 18, 1914

Jane Sullivan burial date May 5, 1913

Daniel F. Sullivan burial October 8, 1959

Michael J. Sullivan burial January 9, 1951

Ann Sullivan burial February 12, 1934

Mary G. Sullivan burial November 13, 1944 - possibly Daniel F.'s spouse as in baptism certificate witness of my father's
