Descendants of Hendric HUYCK

First Generation

1. Hendric HUYCK was born about 1591 in Nymegen, Netherlands.

General Notes:

[ACD] Name is spelled "Henrie". He was a merchant at Roemond, who in 1616 became a resident of Nymegan, Netherlands.

[AF] States that Henrie was born in Nymegan, Holland.

(SMK) Hendric was a merchant from Roemaond. In 1616 he became a citizen of Nymwegen (or Nymegan) in Holland. He took an oath for himself and 11 children. Jan and Henric were the first and second sons respectively.

Hendric married (name unknown).

Children from this marriage were:

+ 2 M i. Johannes HUYCK was born on 18 Apr 1617 in Groot St, Gelderland, Nymegen, Netherlands.

3 M ii. Henric HUYCK was born about 1619.

General Notes: (SMK) Henric became Burgarmaster and raised a large family.

2. Johannes HUYCK (Hendric¹) was born on 18 Apr 1617 in Groot St, Gelderland, Nymegen, Netherlands.

General Notes:

[ACD] Johannes "accompanied his brother-in-law Pieter Minuit to America in 1617." (MKA) The Dutch Colony of New Netherlands was founded in 1624. It would be interesting to discover where Johannes went in 1617.

[AF] Gives the name as Jan Huyck and that he was born 18 Apr 1617, Groot St. Nymegan, Holland.

(SMK) Jan Huyck became Chieftan of the Groat Straat in 1617. Accompanied by his brother-in-law, Peter Minuit, on his emigration to New Amsterdam in the ship "Seagull" landed 4 May 1626 on Mahattan Island. He became "Koopman" or keeper of the stores in the fort which guarded the settlement of 30 rude houses of bark. It is stated that Jan and Peter were Wallons [sic] (Belgians) and spoke and wrote only in French. Jan served as lay reader in Church services.

(MKA) The above comment is of some consequence. Although New Netherlands was a Dutch Colony, the first colonists were French Huguenots who had gone to the Netherlands for the religious freedom. It is interesting that someone who spoke French only, should be lay reader in Church.

Johannes married Lisabeth PETERS .

General Notes: [ACD]
[AF] Spells the name Elizabeth.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 4 M i. Andries HUYCK was born about 1647 in Kinderhook, New Netherlands.

4. Andries HUYCK (Johannes², Hendric¹) was born about 1647 in Kinderhook, New Netherlands.

General Notes: [ACD] Andries became the owner of a large estate at Kinderhook "which he obtained by patent from King James II in 1636." He and Cathlyna had ten children, of whom Johannes was the eldest.

(MKA) New Netherlands became British in 1664, hence it seems unlikely that Andries obtained his patent from the British Crown.

[AF] & [IGI] Gives the name as Andries Hanse Huyck. [Would Hanse indicate the son of Johannes or is this a different Andries?]

Andries married Cathlyna VAN VALKENBURGH on 10 Oct 1679. Cathlyna was born on 8 Jan 1659 in Beverwyck, New Netherlands.

General Notes: [ACD]

Valkenburgh and Annatie. This entry is a submission of a Church member, not a transcript of an original document.

(MKA) Catrijn, Catheline & Catryna appear to be interchangeable in [IGI]. Most of the children are listed in IGI twice, with same Christening dates but with different spellings of mother's name. The entries are submissions of church members not transcripts of church documents.

(MKA) For the date 1659, in the [IGI] listing, the place should read Beverwyck, New Netherlands. Names such as Albany, and New York date from British Colonial Rule beginning 1664, the little town of New Amsterdam in Montgomery Co dates after the Revolution, about the time that Montgomery Co was divided from the former Albany Co. During the Dutch colonial period, there were no County governments organized. These errors are very common in LDS records.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 5 Mi Cornelis HUYCK was christened on 11 Mar 1688 in Albany, New York.

General Notes:

(SMK) Gives her name as Sarah Nicoll Montanye.

(MKA) Presumably she was a widow. There is no record given of children by her previous marriage. The birth year of 1783 for the first child, when the parents were married in August 1783 suggests the possibility that he was a child of the first marriage. Finding clergy in 1783 in Upper Canada to perform a marriage was also very difficult.

General Notes:

(MKA) There is some confusion in the source document which wife was first.

The birth dates of the children were not given hence they do not provide a clue. The sequence in the biographic notes was accepted.

(MKL) Peter Huyck assisted with the work on the farm and later added to the number of acres on Trout Creek. At the breaking out of the Revolutionary War he enlisted with the American Forces under different commands and many and various were the anecdotes of those exciting times he would relate to his grandchildren. He directly remembered the flight of his parents from their home near Kingston, whence they were driven by Indians. Peter Huyck was married twice, first to Susana Gardner, of Kingston and from this union there were four children. He married for his second wife, Cornelia Huyck, a distant relative and from this union there were seven children. Peter Huyck lived on the homestead on Trout Creek and died there when a very old man. [ACD] The name is spelled Lena Gordanier in the heading of her family with John Shibley and Helena Gordanier in the listing as a child with her parents Jacob and Jannetie (Huyck) Gordanier.

[WBT] The name is spelled Ellen Gordanier

Name is spelled "Eleanor Shablay" on her daughter Elizabeth's Baptismal Record.

Ellen's father was a "King's Man" and took Ellen to Canada with him as a stowaway. After the close of the Revolution, John Shibley came to Canada and found his wife. He settled in Canada and was appointed "King's Surveyor".

132 F iii. Margaret SHIBLEY was born on 18 Jun 1779 and was christened on 22 Aug 1779.

General Notes: [JSB] "Margrit" born 18 Jun 1779

Margaret is listed in the 1851 Census as age 65 living in Camden Twp. This would make her birth year 1786. Is it possible that as a spinster, she did not want to admit to being 72?

[ACD] Gives the birth date as the 17th June 1779 and spells the name Margrieta.

+ 133 F iv. Jane "Jenny" SHIBLEY was born on 7 Jul 1786 in Ernesttown Twp, Midland District, Upper Canada and died on 10 May 1865 in Bath, Ernesttown Twp, Len & Add Co, Canada West, at age 78.

140 M xi. Timothy SHIBLEY was born about 1796.

General Notes: (MKA) Timothy as a son in this family was listed by a researcher whose name was not recorded. There is no Timothy listed in the family Bible and from the regularity of birth dates it is difficult to fit him in.

[WDR] lists "Tiney (son)" OC 20 May 1817. In the Ontario Land Record Index Tiney Shibley is listed as a daughter of a United Empire Loyalist. Receiving the south half of lots 16 & 17 Conc 13 in Dover Township, Kent County.

[ACD] Gives "Tyney" as an affectionate name for Christina and does not list Timothy.

(MKA) This family used affectionate name variations for all of the children and I have continued to list Timothy assuming him to be "Tiney" and the Land Record Index errs with respect to the sex until new information comes to light. He would have been 21 years of age or more in 1817 in order to receive the land grant. His birth would have been before 1796.

+ 141 F xii. Cynthia SHIBLEY was born on 7 Mar 1796 in Ernesttown Twp, Upper Canada, was christened on 22 May 1796 in Ernesttown, and died on 4 Mar 1874, at age 77.

(RVP)[ACD] Gives birth as the 13 Sep 1782, Baptism 16 Jan 1799, reported to have died young. Source: Lutheran Church Records.

General Notes: Peter Huyck, Jr., started in active business life for himself as steersman, rafting logs to Philadelphia. Later he took to buying and selling live stock, walking long distances, driving his herd before him, buying and selling as he went. At the end of a few years he bought a farm, which he stocked well, and in connection with his farm work engaged again in lumbering. When twenty-seven years of age, he married Esther Seeley, daughter of William and Mary (Benedict) Seeley, of Sidney. They had five children, namely; .William E., who married Lavinia (Begeal) Houghtaling, the widow of Elias Houghtaling, who was killed in the late war; George J., the subject of this biography; Julia A., who married Charles Downs, of Deposit; Mary E., who married William Begeal, son of Samuel and Charlotte (Barley)Begeal, of Schoharie County; and Celia Ann, who married Charles A. Palmatier, of Tompkins. Peter Huyck, Jr., still lives at this writing, scarcely showing his advanced age of eightyfive years, and remembers all important events that have occurred during his life. He was one of the founders of the Presbyterian church in his town, and its first Deacon. He was in his young days a Democrat; but at the starting of the Republican party he cast his vote with them, and has continued to do so up to the present time

General Notes: GEORGE J. HUYCK, a thriving farmer of Deposit, was born in Tompkins, N.Y., September 7, 1840, son of Peter Huyck, Jr., who was born in the same town, March 26, 1810, he being the son of Peter Huyck, a native of Schoharie County.

George J. Huyck received his education at the district schools, helping his father with the farm work at odd times, and had just become of age, in 1862, when the war broke out. He enlisted in the One Hundred and Forty-fourth Regiment, New York Volunteers, served three years; and at James Island, in front of Charleston, on February 17, 1865, was shot by two minie balls, which struck both legs. After lying in the hospital at Beaufort, S.C., he returned to the regiment, and was granted a furlough of thirty days. He reported for duty at the end of that time, and was mustered out in July of the same year. After remaining at home about two years, he went to Riceville, Mitchell County, Ia., where he engaged in farming and stock-raising. He remained there three years, then sold out, returned East, and bought the homestead, where he engaged in farming, dairying, and lumbering to a certain extent. In 1892 Mr. Huyck sold that place, and went to the DeMoney farm, where he remained but a short time, as in 1894 he bought the Whitaker estate, one of the best and oldest in the country. On November 27, 1872, George J. Huyck married Ann E. Travis, of Hale's Eddy, a descendant of the old Whitaker family, the original owners of his estate, and a sister of Squire Travis, of Hale's Eddy, town of Deposit. Mr. and Mrs. Huyck have three children -- William Jan, Rutherford Squire, and Celia Ann. Mr. Huyck is a member of the Presbyterian church, and his wife a member of the Baptist church of Tompkins. He was a charter member of Hathaway Post, Grand Army of the Republic, Deposit, and is honored and respected as a patriotic and useful citizen.

HUYCK, George J. . . . At age 24, a single man, born in Delaware County, he is included in Fam. No. 37 as a son of Peter Huyck. He entered military service in Sept. 1862 in the 144th NY for 3 years as a Private. At present, he is a Private in the 144th NY with 3 months of unexpired service.

Biography of A. Byron Darby, M.D., pages 862 / 863. History of De Kalb

County, Indiana. Inter-State Publishing Company, Chicago, 1885.

A. Byron Darby, M.D., is a native of Fulton County, Ohio, born Nov. 18, 1839, a son of Samuel Bryant and Sepharna (Guilford) Darby, his father a native of Vermont and his mother of Massachusetts. His parents were married in Allegany County, State of New York in 1826, and in 1836 emigrated to what was then Henry, now Fulton County, Ohio, with two yoke of oxen and lumber wagon (one of the yokes then used is still in the possession of the Doctor). Being among the first settlers of the county, Samuel B. Darby helped organize the first township in the county; kept the first post office; taught the first school and opened the first store which he carried on for several years. In early life he was a Democrat, but after its organization affiliated with the Republican party, and was a member of the Convention which nominated J.C. Fremont, and also Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency. Samuel Bryant Darby died July 15, 1884, aged seventy-seven years of age. Sepharna Darby is yet living, aged seventy-four years. They had a family of nine children, four of whom are living. A. Byron Darby attended Alfred College in Allegany County, N.Y., and subsequently Oberlin College, Ohio, where he paid his school expenses by teaching and working hours not required for study. Having early in life had the desire to study medicine, in 1862 and 1863 after reading the necessary text books, he attended the Eclectic Medical College at Cincinnati, Ohio, from which he graduated in the spring of the latter year. After his graduation he located in Flint, Ind., and practiced in partnership with Dr. H.L. Smith a year, when Dr. Smith moved from the place and left him the only physician there. He built up a large practice, but his health becoming impaired, in 1864 he moved to Waterloo, De Kalb County, Ind., and has met with equally as good success here as in his former location. He is a member of the State Medical Society, the Northeastern Indiana Medical Association and the De Kalb County Medical Society, and enjoys the confidence and esteem of his colleagues in the professions as well as the families who employ him. He has been Secretary of the Board of Health of Waterloo since the organization of the Board. Being of a genial, but dignified and calm presence, he inspires the confidence of his patients, and his sympathetic and kindly nature wins for him their love and esteem. Dr. Darby was married April 8, 1864, to Linda M. Huyck, youngest daughter of John T. and Lucinda (Basil) Huyck, the former of whom was born in the State of New York and the latter in the State of Vermont. Dr. A. Byron and Mrs. Darby have three children--Hadsell Byron, born June 3, 1865; Frank Wm., born Feb. 11, 1868, and their daughter Verna, born Nov. 6, 1878. The doctor and his wife are members of the Church of Christ and workers in the Sunday-school. He is a member of Waterloo Lodge, No. 307, F. & A. M., also No. 1,436, K. of H. He is a strong supporter of the temperance cause, and lends his influence at every opportunity in his practice to encourage men to be temperate, that they may not only preserve their health, but their character also. Biography of A. Bryon Darby, M. D., pages 402/403/404/405. History of DeKalb County, Indiana ; B. F. Bowen & Company, Inc., Indianapolis, 1914.

A. Bryon Darby, M. D.

Devoted during a long period of years to the noble work which his profession implies, the gentleman whose career we essay to briefly outline in the following paragraphs has been faithful and indefatigable in his endeavors and has not only earned the due rewards of his efforts in a temporal way but has also proved himself eminently worthy of exercise the important functions of his calling, by reason of his ability, his abiding sympathy and his earnest zeal in behalf of his fellow men. His understanding of the science of medicine is regarded by those who know him as being broad and comprehensive, and the profession and the public long ago accorded to him a distinguished place among the men of this class in Indiana. His has been a long life of earnest and persistent endeavor, such as always brings a true appreciation of the real value of human existence—a condition that must be prolific of good results in all the relations of life.

A. Bryon Darby was born in Fulton county, Ohio, on November 18, 1839, and is a son of Samuel Bryant and Sapharna (Guilford) Darby, the former a native of Vermont and the latter of Massachusetts. These parents were married in Allegany county, New York, in 1826 and in 1836 they moved to what was then Henry, now Fulton county, Ohio, the long, tiresome and oft-times dangerous journey being made with two yoke of oxen and a lumber wagon. They were among the first settlers of Henry county, and in the organization and development of the county Samuel B. Darby was a prominent figure, he having helped to organize the first township in the county, was postmaster of the first postoffice, taught the first school and opened the first store, conducting the latter for several years. In his political affiliations he was first a Democrat, but after the organization of the Republican party he allied himself with that organization and was thereafter active in its support. He was a member of the historic convention which nominated John C. Fremont of the Presidency, and also the convention four years later which nominated Abraham Lincoln. His death occurred on July 15, 1884, and he was survived many years by his widow, who died in 1909, when nearly ninety-nine years of age. They were the parents of nine children.

A. Bryon Darby received his education in the common schools and then became a student in Arford College, Allegany county, New York, and later studied at Oberlin College, Ohio, where he paid his school expenses by teaching and working hours not required for study. Having determined to make the practice of medicine his life work, he devoted his spare time to the study of the necessary text books and in 1862 and 1863 he was a student in the Eclectic Medical College at Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was graduated in the spring of the latter year. Immediately after his graduation he located at Flint, Indiana, and in partnership with Dr. H. Smith practiced his profession for about a year, and at the end of which time, Dr. Smith moving from the place, the subject became the only physician in that locality. Here he built up a large and profitable practice, but his health becoming impaired he moved to Waterloo, DeKalb county, Indiana, which has been his home since that time. Proper intellectual discipline, thorough professional knowledge and the possession and utilization of the qualities and attributes essential to success made Dr. Darby eminent in this chosen calling, and during all the years since he located at Waterloo, he has stood among the scholarly and enterprising physicians and surgeons in the community long distinguished for the high order of its medical talent. His life here has been characterized not only by high professional ability, but also by the most profound human sympathy, which has overleaped mere sentiment and become an actuating motive, for in youth he realized that there is no honor not founded on genuine worth; that there is a vital purpose in life, and that the best and highest accomplishment must come from a well trained mind and an altruistic heart. Those who have known him well have been unstinted in their praise of his superior ability and the younger men in his profession have frequently sought his counsel, all admitting his eminence. The large success which has crowned his life work, coupled with his ripe experience and kind heart, have enabled him to bring comfort and confidence to the sick room and he has carried sunshine into many a home, his practice having extended over a wide radius of the surrounding county. Professionally, the Doctor is a member of the DeKalb County Medical Society, the Indiana State Medical Society and the American Medical Association. For many years he was the efficient secretary of the board of health of Waterloo.

On April 28, 1864, Dr. Darby was married to Linda M. Huyck, who was born in Huron county, Ohio, on February 7, 1842, the youngest daughter of John T. and Lucinda (Bisil) White, the former of whom was born in the state of New York, and the latter in Vermont. Mrs. Darby came with her parents to Williams county, Ohio, when a young girl and lived there until her marriage to Dr. Darby. She acquired a good, self-secured education and taught a number of terms of school in Ohio and also several terms in Illinois. After her removal to Waterloo she gained many warm friends during the long years of her residence here and was closely identified with the social and church circles, being always a leader in moral reform and actively interested in the work of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. She was possessed of more than ordinary talent and until late in life was a leader in the circles in which she moved in her community. She engaged in literary pursuits and was a charter member of the Ladies Minerva Club, also an earnest and faithful member of the Christian church. Her death occurred on December 10, 1900. To the Doctor and Mrs. Darby were born three children, namely: Hadsell Byron, born June 3, 1865, now lives in Fort Wayne, Indiana, where he manages a drug store for Jacob Bills; he married Edith Griffith, of Corunna, this county, and they have two daughters, Nina and Naomi; Frank William Darby, born on February 11, 1868, and who is engaged in the drug business in Waterloo, married Neva Smith, of Steuben county, this state; Verna Darby, born November 6, 1878, is the wife of O. C. Lampland, who is conducting the Lowell Observatory at Flagstaff, Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Lampland were fellow students and graduated in the same class at the Indiana State University, and Mrs. Lampland gives valuable assistance to her husband in his observatory work.

Dr. Darby has been a life-long supporter of the Republican party and has been active in its support. In 1900 he was elected to the state Senate and served during the sessions of 1901 to 1903, with credit to himself and honor to his district. He is a member of the Church of Christ, and for many years was an active worker in the Sunday school. Fraternally, he is a member of Waterloo Lodge No. 307, Free and Accepted Masons, and of the Knights of Honor. Personally, Dr. Darby is genial and approachable, possessing those qualities, which win friends, and he has been scrupulously conscientious in all that he has said and done. He was always deeply imbued with the courage of his convictions and his relations with his fellow men have ever been such as to win and retain their confidence and esteem.

General Notes: (CME) (RVP)

[JSB] Name listed as Amy or Anny

[IGI] Gives birth place as "Camden, Ernestown, Lennox and Addington, Ontario".

Neither Camden Twp nor Ernesttown Twp or village, was settled in 1776. Since the village of Ernesttown is not in Camden Twp, the person who supplied the data was confused. This comment applies also to Hannah's brother Jacob and sister Margaret.

(DLN) Gives the birth date 16 Jun 1776

[ACD] Gives baptismal place as Kinderhook which seems curious since the family came from Pennsylvania.

(MKA) It is believed that Hannah was born in Pennsylvania.

Ontario Archives Land Record Index lists a Hannah Vosburgh, residence Ernestown receiving the north half of lot 20 in conc 11 and the north half of lot 12 conc 14 in Tecumseth Twp, dated 23 May 1837.

[LLC] Lists a "Nancy" Shibley as well as Hannah amongst the children of John Shibley's family. These are probably the same person.

[PAC] "The Petition of Hannah Vosburgh of the Township of Ernest Town in the Midland District and Province of Upper Canada, widow, humbly sheweth

That your petitioner is the daughter of John Shibley of the Township of Ernest Town in the Midland District, deceased, an U E Loyalist. That your petitioner has been married to John Vosburgh and has never received any Land or order for Land from the Crown. Your petitioner therefore prays that Your Excellency will be pleased to grant unto her Two Hundred Acres of Waste Lands of the Crown and furnish [blank] to be her Agent to locate the Same and to receive the Patent when completed and as in duty bound will ever pray
Hannah Vosburg her mark.

"Midland District, April Sessions. Hannah Vosburg maketh oath and saith that she is the person she describes herself to be in the foregoing Petition - that she has been married and has not heretofore received any Land or order for Land from the Crown. Hannah Vosburg, her mark.

Sworn in the open Sessions before me this twenty seventh day of April 1836,
James Nickalls Jr Clerk of the Peace.

David Shibley witnessed the above document and J W Mcaulay Chairman of the Midland Sessions stated that Hannah had appeared before them. The Council recommended she receive the land 26th May 1836.

Hannah married John C VOSBURGH about 1796 in Ernestown Twp, Upper Canada. John C VOSBURGH was christened on 29 Dec 1765 in Reformed Church, Kinderhook, Columbia Co, New York, died in 1832, at age 67, and was buried in Cemetary, Shibley Farm, Bath, Ontario.

General Notes:

(CME) Notes: John C Vosburgh - Columbia Co, New York - Ensign 1787 - Lieutenant 1790 - moved away 1792. John C Vosburgh was a witness at the marriage of Petrus Sharp and Margaret Sharp 4 Jul 1793 in Ernesttown, Upper Canada. Other witnesses: Jacobus [or Jacobiues] Sharp, Maria Pruyn, Nabby Lockwood, and Katreen Donavan.

[PAC]

Series Executive Council, Land Papers, Upper Canada To His Honor Peter Russell Esquire, President Administering the Government of Upper Canada etc etc etc In Council John Vosburgh petitioned your Honour some time in June last for lands for his wife, a daughter of John Shibley, a U.E. Loyalist. No answer being had received and the Petition mislaid, humbly prays your Honour to grant his wife lands as aforesaid. J.Robinson, Agent for the Petitioner. York 13th Nov. 1797 ENDORSED: No. 9 John Vosburgh U.E. Recommended for 200 acres as U.E. Confirmed. P.R. Nov 17, 1797, a land certificate is granted for 200 acres to John C. Vosburgh.

(MKA) The land referred to in the above record for land has not been found in the Ontario Archives Land Record Index. It appears as: John Vosbing, 17 Nov 1797 with no place of residence and no property described. A John C

Vosbury, residence in Ernestown, received Lot 26 Conc 5 on the 3 Mar 1807. This lot is only 150 acres but the date suggests that it could not be the land received as a result of the petition. No grants were found in the name of Hannah Shibley, although grants are listed for most of her brothers and sisters. A grant to Hannah Vosburgh in 1837 in Tecumseth Twp resulted from her own petition.

[PAC] Land petitions, Upper Canada "To his excellency Francis Gore Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada etc etc etc In Council The Petition of John C Vosburg of the Township of Ernestown, Farmer. Humbly Sheweth That your Petitioner is an inhabitant of the Township of Ernestown in the Midland District, a Farmer and is desirous of obtaining a Lease for Lot Number thirty-six in the fifth Concession of the Township of Ernest Town in the Midland District being a Clergy Reserve. Therefore Humbly Prays That your Excellency in Council may be pleased to grant your Petitioner a lease of said Lot under such regulations as are customary. Your Petitioner further begs to state that his surety is Moses Simmons of the Township of Ernest Town in the Midland District aforesaid Farmer. All which is Humbly submitted to your Excellency's Consideration. And Your Petitioner as in duty bound Will Ever Pray. Thomas Dorland, agent for [signed] John C Vosburg. January 25 1807." The above Petition was received 27th February 1807 from Thomas Dorland, with the comment "open"

[MKA does this mean that the petition was received with the seal broken?] It was read in Council 3 March 1807 and was approved. The rent to commence from the next Quarter Day after this date.

At Hallowell, Ontario, a Mr Vosburgh was a member of the Free Mason Lodge, Prince Edward Co in the early 1800's. Probably John C. Vosburgh. John C. Vosburgh was in the war of 1812 on the British side. 1835 Census at Sacket's Harbor, New York, gives: Anna Vosburgh, 1 male who was not a voter and not subject to militia duty, 3 females, of whom 1 was married and under 45, 1 unmarried and under 16. (When the extra female is not described, "I" [writer not known] take it that she was over 45) Calvin Shibley, 2 males of whom 1 was entitled to vote, 1 female, married and under 45. [wife?] George Vosburgh, 2 males of whom 1 was entitled to vote, 1 female, married and under 45, 2 unmarried and under 16.

(MKA) One source gives John's birth place as Herkimer, New York, the son of . Johannes Abraham Vosburgh and Neltje Gardinier. Kinderhook, Columbia Co, New York, where his parents resided is more likely. This is further supported by his membership in the Militia for Columbia Co. John's membership in the Militia until 1792 hardly qualifies him for a United Empire Loyalist. The land grant was on his wife's account. John C Vosburgh signed his name with the middle initial C. In the Dutch naming convention this would have been after his father with Cornelis (Cornelius) or Christoffel (Christopher) as the most likely. This is Johannes, son of Cornelis V and Annatje Burghat Chr 29 Dec 1765 at Kinderhook.

[RW] Volume 2 p 285. The family of John C Vosburgh b 1765: father's name is Cornelius. Spouse Hannah (n Shibley) father John UE-ERH. General Notes: [LR] "John, son of Johannes and Annatshia Vosburg of Ernest Town was baptized June 30th 1799." Captain, 4th Battalion, Addington, 1849.

(FLV) Is it possible that John's middle name was Shibley? Is there any way of checking?

[MUC] John Volsburgh age 29 is listed with the 2nd Frontenac Regiment of Militia, Kingston Dec 1828.

John married Mary MARTIN . Mary was born in 1804, died on 2 Apr 1867, at age 63, and was buried in Belvidere Cem, Belvidere, Illinois.

General Notes:

[RW] (FLV) A Polly Vos Burg was buried in Belvedere Cemetery, Illinois. Cemetery records state that she died 4/2/1867 at the age of 63. Another source says that Mary (Martin) Vosburgh died in Belvedere, Illinois in 1868. (MKA) I am confident that Polly Vos Burg is Mary (Martin) Vosburgh. Does the date indicate the 4th of February or the 2nd of April? (FLV) Feels that the 2 Apr is the more probable.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 418 M i. Charles G VOSBURG .

419 M ii. Miles VOSBURGH .

General Notes:

(FLV) "[Aunt Lila Hoffman at 93 years of age] passed along an interesting family story concerning our branch of Vosburghs move to Illinois. It seems that three brothers, one of whom was my great grandfather William's father, owned either a sawmill or a lumber operation in Kingston Township, Ontario. One of the brothers, Miles by name, absconded with all of the cash and horses. The two remaining brothers did not know to where he fled. Aunt Lila thinks that someone later heard that he was in Missouri. My brother George discovered an old story that he first came to Rockford, Illinois. It has been documented that William did not come to Illinois until 1860. Therefore I am assuming the crime was quite a bit earlier."

+ 420 M iii. William VOSBURGH was born on 23 Sep 1827 in Kingston Twp, Frontenac Co, Upper Canada, died on 13 Feb 1901 in Kingston, Illinois, at age 73, and was buried in Kingston, Illinois.

General Notes:

1871 Census: John Vosburgh, age 40, Born in Ontario, Church of England, Origin German, Teamster. District 057, Subdistrict D, Division 3, page 40. This is in Peterborough Co, Asphodel Twp. Film C-9988.

John married Elizabeth BARKER in 1849. Elizabeth BARKER died in 1869.

General Notes:

(CME) Elizabeth Barker and her husband John S Vosburgh are buried in Cataraqui Cemetery, Kingston Twp, Ontario, in the plot of her father, a Dr. Barker.
(MKA) It is probable that the initial S is for Shibley.

244. George VOSBURGH (*Hannah (Annatje) SHIBLEY*¹³⁰, *Magdalena "Ellen" "Lena" GARDINIER*⁷⁷, *Jannetje HUYCK*⁶¹, *Junior Johannes*⁴⁰, *Johannes*¹¹, *Andries*⁴, *Johannes*², *Hendric*¹) was christened on 2 Aug 1806 in St John's Ang, Ernesttown, Ontario.

General Notes: [ACD] Does not supply a year for the birthdate 2 Aug and lists him as the last of seven children.

George married Harriet about 1831. Harriet was born about 1810 in Sacket's Harbor, New York and died in 1850 in Sacket's Harbor, New York, about age 40.

422 F i. Ann E VOSBURGH was born in 1832 in Sacket's Harbor, New York.

423 F ii. Josephine VOSBURGH was born in 1834 in Sacket's Harbor, New York.

General Notes:

[DAM] Abraham Loucks married Josephine Vosburg, both of Fredericksburg, Dec 12 1856 at the M E Parsonage, Napanee, Rev C. Manson officiating.

Josephine married Abraham LOUCKS on 12 Dec 1856 in Napanee, Lenn & Add Co, Canada West.

248. Jacob VOSBURGH (Hannah (Annatje) SHIBLEY¹³⁰, Magdalena "Ellen" "Lena" GARDINIER⁷⁷, Jannetje HUYCK⁶¹, Junior Johannes⁴⁰, Johannes¹¹, Andries⁴, Johannes², Hendric¹) was born in 1794, died on 24 Sep 1848 in Portsmouth, Kingston Twp, Frontenac Co, Canada West, at age 54, and was buried in Mt.Hope Cemetary, Rochester, New York.

General Notes:

The birth year of 1794 was derived by subtracting Jacob's reported age at his death from his death date. No birth record has been found.

[ACD] [RW] Does not list Jacob in the family of John C Vosburgh.

[MKA] A birth location in Herkimer, New York, reported by [CME] is highly unlikely. Jacob was probably born in Ernesttown Twp or Fredricksburgh Twp in Lennox & Addington Co or Hallowell (Picton) in Prince Edward Co, since his father was known to be in Ernesttown in 1793. See notes for John C Vosburgh, Jacob's father. Elizabeth J Schmidt of Mt Hope Cemetary reports: There is no record at Mt Hope Cemetary for the Interment of Jacob Vosburg. The stone reads Jacob Vosburg died Sept 24 1848 aged 54 years. The lot (13 E, W 1/2) was purchased by William Vosburg on October 3 1852. The north 1/4 was transferred to Schuler Moses by Charles G Vosburg, "he being the only living heir" on March 6 1884. The rear of the stone bears the names and dates of E.D. Moses M.D. and his wife Mary Ann.

(MKA) This may mean that the record on the stone is a memorial to Jacob Vosburgh only, he was buried elsewhere, particularly because the plot was purchased 4 years after Jacob died. Considering the transfer of the title to Dr. Moses it is assumed they are no relation. The purchaser of the stone was Jacob's nephew, son of John Vosburgh, William Rin 419. Charles G. Vosburg is William's younger brother.

(DJV) Jacob Vosburgh purchased land of Simeon and May Morrill, 14 Sep 1830.

1842 Quit-Claim deed: 25 Feb 1842 between William Garratt, Twp Kingston, Distiller, to Jacob Vosburgh same place, Twp Kingston, 129 pounds 15 shillings. Kingston Twp, first Concession part of lot 19 , one acre.

Jacob married Clarissa . Clarissa was born about 1805, died on 28 Feb 1852 in Rochester, New York, about age 47, and was buried in Mount Hope Cem, Rochester, New York.

General Notes:

Clarissa's signature on a transfer of land document dated 26 Feb 1850 is spelled "Clairessa Vosburgh". The first of the double S and the S in Vosburgh are the old style "f". In this document as a widow she has sold for one hundred and twenty pounds, in Kingston Twp, first concession, part of lot 19, containing about 1 acre. The document is difficult to read but appears to describe property in Portsmouth along the waterfront, once belonging to John McLeod Senior. This document was drawn up by John Alexander MacDonald, lawyer at the time and Prime Minister of Canada ultimately.

Note from Elizabeth J.Schmidt Mt.Hope Cemetary:

An interment record was found for Clarissa Vosburg. She was interred on October 3 1852, age 43. She lived on Mortimer Street in this city (Rochester N.Y.) and died of consumption. Both names (Clarissa's and her husband's) are inscribed on the family stone.

Clarissa, his wife died October, 2 1852 Aged 42 years.

(The age is badly eroded and may be 47 or 57)

Comment MKA: For a birth year, the age 43 in the Cemetary record was used instead of any of the possible ages on the stone.

(MKA) The above two references are the only known records for Clarissa. It is possible that she is a second wife and that a marriage record might be found in the Methodist Church about 1842/44. Clarissa's surname is unknown.

John married Sarah Ann REYNOLDS . Sarah was born in 1818 in Belleville, Hastings Co, Upper Canada and died on 27 Aug 1859 in Portland Twp, Frontenac Co, Canada West, at age 41.

General Notes:

[ACD] On the death of Sarah Ann "she was predeceased by her parents, a brother and sister; survived by her husband and two adopted children... a boy and a girl. 'she was not permitted to raise any of her own children'. [Canada Christian Guardian]"

(MKA) It is not clear if the children Mercy Ann and Harriet include the adopted children or not, but it does not seem likely since the adopted children were a boy and a girl. The comment that she was not permitted to raise any of her own children suggests a story worth investigating.

General Notes:

[LLC] (RVP) [MUC] A Thomas Madden is listed in the 1st Regiment Carleton Militia whose limits are Goulbourn, Nepean, Huntley, and March. Thomas is listed under Goulbourn. This list is assumed to be valid for 1828 in which case his age, given as 19, indicates a birth year of 1809.

(CFW) A second source gives the birthdate as 9 Aug 1804.

The Thomas Madden Family in the Dresden Area 1860 - 1969 [Dresden is about 12 miles west of Thamesville] Thomas was a farmer. The earliest mention of the Madden family near Dresden is found in Soutar's Directory of Essex, Kent and Lambton Counties, compiled in 1864 - 67. It lists in Chatham Twp, Kent Co:

Madden, Thomas - Concession 8 Lot 20

Madden, William - Concession 8 Lot 19

The Kent County Atlas 1881 also names:

Madden, Reverend Thomas - Wesleyan Methodist Minister and Farmer, 150 acres, Concession 8 Lot 20. Valued at $6,000. Born at Kingston 1805 and settled in the county, 1860. Post Office: Dresden.

These farms face on the 9th Concession, but number from the 8th and are about three miles south of Dresden, east of the corner of the 9th Concession and on the Lindsay Road. This corner was given the name of Turnerville, when a post office was set up in 1886, at the corner of William Turner's farm. But the Erie and Huron Railway ran along the other side of the road and the station was named Ennett, after the Ennett family through whose farm it passed for quite a distance. A mile farther south, along the Lindsay Road, at the corner of the 8th Concession is the Lindsay Road church, established in 1874, which was the Church that the Madden family attended ... Reverend Thomas Madden is also mentioned in the history of Dawn Mills Church.

Thomas Madden's wife was Clarissa Lavinia Fretts, daughter of John Jacob Fretts and Elizabeth Gordaniar [sic] of Napanee ... Reading of recent microfilms in Chatham Library of early newspapers revealed:

"DIED Clarissa L Madden, in Chatham, Friday evening, November 16th 1882, aged 80 years and 8 months ..."

We find the family again in the 1871 census of Chatham Twp, Kent Co:

Madden - Thomas 68

Claracy 63

George 26 Minister

John 22

Sarah 20

James 18

In the Dresden Cemetary, in the river range, is the Madden tombstone, inscribed as follows:

John Madden later left Lindsay Road and settled in London. D Eric Knudsen, author of these notes states: "My grandmother Turner was Helen Fretts, whose father George Henry Fretts was a brother of Clarissa Lavinia Fretts, Mrs Thomas Madden, mother of John Madden. General Notes:

(CFW) Ben Madden was the son of John Madden and his wife, Augusta, who lived on Concession 8 Lot 20, Chatham Township.

Ben Madden's life work was in various commercial enterprises. He is said to have been operating a restaurant at the corner of Main and Tecumseh Streets [Dresden] at the time of his marriage to Janet Carscallen.

Shortly afterward, still in 1900, we find him running a general store at the corner of Brown Street N, lots 1 and 2. He remained in business here until 1939, when the store was taken over by the M & P chain.

This corner was part of the British American Institution, till all of its lands were sold in 1871. In 1872, Nevil Smith was operating a store at the corner and in 1878, R P Wright moved there from his store across the river. The building at that time was a small one, of frame with a false front, and is shown still standing in an 1879 picture of a delivery of farm machinery, under the auspices of the agent J R Boylan. The nearby buildings are mostly of brick, so it is probable that R P Wright built the brick store, as Ben Madden did not begin business at the corner till after the turn of the century.

(MKA) The source document includes a photograph of the building and although faded, signs painted on the brick are still visible: "Ben Madden ... The Reliable Grocer" and "Highest prices paid 4 produce" A new sign reads "Simpson's Grocery" with the Coca Cola Logo. Abridged from a newspaper column accompanying the above mentioned photograph

... "E B Madden was interested in municipal affairs, and served as a mayor of the town. ... If one looks closely, the south side of the building still shows signs painted on the brick: "E B Madden, the Corner Store" along with the admonition to buy "that 25 cent T"

Mr Madden was a man of dry wit and his store was also a gathering place for the cognoscenti of the community, where news was known almost before it happened: digested and analyzed by the hot stove league. Mr Madden took in an apprentice, the late Russell Dynes: and being of the old school, insisted that a Day's work be given for a day's pay.

...his sense of humor sometimes got carried away especially when he wrote out his advertisement headings ... eg "Ben Madden's Pants are down."

Mr Madden, in addition to his storekeeping duties also was the local magistrate and school truant officer, and in later years, after he had sold the grocery business, retained a small office at the rear of the premises, from which he dispensed insurance and justice along with a stern face to any lad not in school.
